Comprehension: Identify Main Idea and Details

Read the main idea. Place an X next to each detail that tells about the main idea.

Main idea: The Kemp's Ridley is the most endangered sea turtle.

- Raccoons destroy the turtle's egg nests.
- They are the smallest of the sea turtles.
- Kemp's Ridley turtles drown in shrimp nets.
- Kemp's Ridley turtles are losing their nesting habitats.

Language Structure: Run-On Sentences

Read the sentences. Write C on the line for a complete sentence. Write R for a run-on sentence.

1. R The turtles rested on the beach they were tired.
2. C It was raining at the beach.
3. R The turtles like to swim they get hot in the sun.
4. C The turtles walk slowly on the grass.

Choose a run-on sentence from above. Then, rewrite the sentence so that it is no longer a run-on.

5. The turtles like to swim.
