

RA These are the steps to building a clubhouse. One is that you will need a blue print before you build it. Two you should draw a drawing so you will know how much lumber you will need. Third you could have an adult cut a hole in the wall for some light. That is my three steps to building a clubhouse.